

DARE TO LEAD

This story starts from a village of Tamil Nadu named as Peralam and there lived a 10 year old boy named as Ashutosh Panda. He was used to be bullied by his own class mates because they were stronger than him and were of 11-12 years. This created a fear in his mind and was also scared him and also his parent were very worried about him. But he have to someday face his fear. There is an Idiom in English - "EVERYTHING YOU WANT IS ON THE OTHER SIDE OF FEAR". He have to face his fears. At last he get a chance to face his fears.

His father was an retired Indian Air Force (IAF) Air Marshal so, his father also wanted him to also become a member of the Indian Air Force. He was an brave boy so he also wanted to do something that would make his parents to be proud, but the fear of the bullies made him step back. One day his father talked to him and that day changed his life, his father said that a "LION NEVER BORN AS AN

A KING, HE HAVE MAKE TO IT.

After this words he became some confident. He complete his studies and get married with Rona Marwaha. She was an helicopter pilot and after that he became an wing commander and he served for his country with his heart and protected them who had trust on him. He whenever get time from his duty he used to talk to his family, he missed his family and they too missed him. And finally he got an moment to become the leader of the modern India. He got the chance to fly the MIG-21 and strike on Pakistan. On 14th of February 2019 Pakistan attacked an Indian army and killed 40 soldiers, that day is known as Black Day in India. After this the Indian army decided to take revenge from Pakistan. After 2016 this would be India's 2nd surgical strike. Rona was chosen for his strike. This was India's first air strike. At almost 3:00 a.m. the MIG-21 was released from the launch pad.

At that time his heart beat was very high and his arms were shaking but a voice of his father. He got confident and flew the jet with his all power and confidence. When they reached the bunkers, he destroyed every single bunker. He was very happy and just remembering his old days when he was bullied by everyone but he never given up and how his parents motivated him.

Suddenly a plane attacked his squad and one plane was also destroyed. When he turned back then he saw that the Pakistanis jet planes were attacking him. His plane got damaged and he was unable to go forward so, he launched a missile which destroyed the planes. He jumped out of the jet plane using parachute and he landed in an unknown land. There came a man and he asked from that man that - "Is it India or Pakistan". The person replied that it is Pakistan. After listening this he ran away and tried not to get in the vision of the Pakistan's soldiers. But he was caught by one of the soldiers. He was so much tortured by them and they also made videos for making fun of him.

When the Indians knew about that, they started a huge protest and the Prime Minister was also against him and said that if you will not release him then we will release the missile. Every single Indian was against Pakistan. At last Pakistan had to surrender and gave him back. He came to his home from the Bagha border. Every Indian was proud of him. When he came he was just thinking that if he would give up in his childhood, he wouldn't be able to make his family and his country.
